* The amount is due on account of June 1887 and from the separated share of Shri Ram Singh and others, for which it was advertised for sale but not sold, as the price offered by the auction-purchaser did not cover the demand, and a notice under section 10, Act XI of 1838, was therefore issued to all the proprietors, but none paid the arrears. Hence, under order of 28th November 1887, all the separated shares of the estate have been cancelled and the whole estate has been advertised for sale.

* The amount is due on account of June 1947 dividend from the separated share of Khemnar Nath Singh and others, for which it was advertised for sale but not sold, as the price offered by the auction-purchaser did not cover the demand, and a notice under section 14, Act 2 of 1936, was therefore issued in all the newspapers, but none paid the amount. Hence, under order of 30th November 1947, all the separated shares of the names have been cancelled and entire estate has been advertised for sale.

When in columns 5, 7 and 9 of the appended statement it is stated that only a share is to be sold, a separate account is kept for such share, and the other share or shares in the estate are excluded from the sale:—
